

Curriculum

- Leading Change: Developing leadership and team-building skills, identifying leadership styles and qualities.
- Volunteerism: Available opportunities, how to get involved, the benefits to you and your community, motivation.
- Communications and Media: Working with media, technology, effective personal communication, cable access TV, advertising and public relations tips.
- Health and Wellness: Personal and community health issues, alternative medicine, stress relief.
- Education: Key issues in today's education environment such as diversity of population and revenue caps, discussions with students.
- Business and Industry: Tours of local businesses, community economic development goals and strategies, small business issues.
- Government: Overview of city services and departments, planning issues and emergency services.

Students may apply now to participate in LEADERSHIP SUN PRAIRIE 15. The deadline for the 2011-2012 program is June 3, 2011. Applicants will be notified of acceptance by July. Session dates/times will be announced at time of acceptance.

Cost is $275 per person. Two Scholarships in the amount of $100 each may be available.

109 E. Main St., Sun Prairie, WI 53590

Phone: 608-837-4547 Fax: 608-837-8765
Email: spchamber@frontier.com
www.sunprairiechamber.com

Leadership Sun Prairie

A Program for Emerging Leaders

Sponsored by:
Sun Prairie Chamber of Commerce
City of Sun Prairie

Leadership Sun Prairie

What is Leadership Sun Prairie?

Leadership Sun Prairie was developed by the Sun Prairie Chamber of Commerce, the City of Sun Prairie, and the Sun Prairie Area School District in response to the need for formal leadership development on a community-wide basis.

Through a series of monthly training sessions, this program will emphasize leadership concepts and community needs. Programs will focus on Sun Prairie's local economy, business and industry, government and education, communications and media, health and wellness, and volunteerism.

Each session will feature local leaders and specialists in various forums, including lectures, round table discussions, and tours throughout the community.

This program requires a commitment of one full day each month from September to April.

Objectives

- To provide a program for existing and emerging leaders that develops an awareness and understanding of the resources, processes, programs and issues that affect the Sun Prairie area.
- To develop a support system among participants which will aid them in their leadership efforts as well as benefit the community.
- To increase and broaden the participants' understanding of the economic, political, and social systems within the Sun Prairie area.
- To promote involvement and participation of the individuals enrolled in the program in volunteer, elective, and appointed positions.

- To increase the participants' analytical and decision-making abilities for the betterment of the Sun Prairie Community.

Who benefits from this program?

- Business
- Industry
- Service organizations
- Government
- Education
- Residents

Everyone in the community benefits from the involvement of more informed leaders through Leadership Sun Prairie!

You benefit when you participate or when you sponsor a participant. You benefit when you offer your facility for a tour or a session location. You benefit when you offer your expertise as a speaker or for job-shadowing.